1950

Almighty and eternal God with our whole soul we thank Thee for the great gift of the Holy Year.

Life is but an opening and closing of doors. We, who are about to close the door upon our high school life, have garnered in the pages of this, our Yearbook, the fruits of four precious years.

With the silver hammer of zeal and hope we shall open the door of the future, praying that we may be found worthy of the plenteous indulgences of this Holy Year of 1950.

Dedication

From the class privileged to graduate during this Holy Year of 1950;

In the desire of pursuing his most earnest hope of recruiting the world with "staunch hearts" leading toward Catholic principles;

For his ideals which have been placed before us, virtues of loyalty and fidelity;

We dedicate this mid-century edition of our yearbook of memories, the "Pallium," to our Most Holy Father, Pius XII, as a tribute to his distinguished spiritual leadership.

May we form his "army of youth, flying the standards of truth," and assist in his crusade of bringing souls to "Christ, our King."

To the Graduates of
THE CATHOLIC GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL

When the next Holy Year comes, in twenty-five years, the Graduates of today will look back with joy upon their participation in the spiritual program of this Holy Year.

With the urge for peace constantly in his soul, our Holy Father prays:

> "Grant, O Lord, peace in our days — peace to souls, peace to families, peace to our Country, peace among nations. May the rainbow of peace cover with the sweep of its serene light the Land sanctified by the life and passion of Thy Divine Son."

May we all join with His Holiness in this timely petition for God's blessings.

REVEREND JOSEPH E. WEYER

Dear Graduates:

This class of the Holy Year of 1950, Los Angeles Catholic Girls' High School, Bishop Conaty Memorial, has a special significance for me. We came to Catholic Girls' High School together, and your class roster will be the first that I am privileged to read as you are presented to our beloved Archbishop to receive your diplomas of graduation.

Your fine spirit of leadership, your zealous initiative, and your loyal cooperation have always served as a stimulus in our daily work together.

May God continue to bless you and your alma mater.

J. E. Weyer.

Tribute to Our Faculty

In saying good-bye, we realize the love and gratitude that fill our hearts as we graduate from our Alma Mater. It is now more than ever that we turn to our teachers who have helped quench our thirst for knowledge and who have strengthened our love for God. In you, our Priests and our Sisters, we have found the serenity for which the world longs. You have radiated a joy which only those who possess Christ in their souls can bestow. The God-fearing principles which you have injected into our minds will serve as an immunization against the evils which will present themselves in a materialistic world.

Our parents excepted, no others will ever influence us as you have done during our youthful days, for it was a time when we were easily molded — ad Jesum per Mariam.

Blessed are we to have been led to Catholic Girls' High School and into the classrooms of our devoted Priests and Sisters who have given all that we may receive all. For these blessings and for countless others showered upon us in the past four years, we, the class of Fifty, bow our heads in grateful prayer.

As steady as a star.

ALICE VALDEZ
Pretty and petite . . .
Conaty will be at a loss
Without her pleasing disposition.

MARY VALENZUELA
Sweet and sincere,
A happy and generous nature.

MARTHA VAN DER LINDEN
Her good character shines
in her eyes
And within her soul,
a serene heart lies.

ARMIDA VARELA
Congenial and sweet
Of a loving and reserved
nature.

...we crowned our Blessed Mother, Queen of all Hearts

JEAN G. VARELA
Sweet and artistic
We will miss her affectionate nature.

DOROTHY TRAYNOR
Her hazel eyes and ebony
hair
Are features we would like to share.

CAROLINA VIZCAINO
The joy of youth and health her eyes displayed
And ease of heart her every look conveyed.

PATRICIA WAIN
Too comic for the solemn things that are,
Her wit may spread her fame afar.

DOROTHY L. WARREN
Sense shines with a double luster
When it is set in humility.

Best of luck and best wishes always Sheridan. I forget the swell times
we had together
Love
Dot.

JOAN MARIE WATERS
A spark of friendship is better than none
But hers are many for everyone.

ELLEN WELCH
From rainbow clouds there flow not drops so bright to see
As from thy presence showers a rain of melody.

DARLENE WEST
A pleasant word for everyone
Always cheerful, full of fun.

TERESA WILEY
In every look, word, deed, and thought
Nothing but sweet and womanly.

Caps and Gowns . . Pomp and Circumstance . . Taps

JOANNE WILLIAMS
Easy to please, hard to excite
Lovable, laughable, morning till night.

MARY ANN WOOD
Always laughing, always true
Never scowling, never blue.

SALLY YOUNG
Demure, composed, and gracious in manner
Full of dreams and hopes for the future.

MAE ZMIRAK
With smiling eyes, a charm that delights,
Her popularity has achieved great heights.

Sister Maria de la Asuncion
Sister of Bethany of Our Lady of Sorrows

Last summer five Sisters of Bethany arrived in Los Angeles from Central America. In September Sister Asuncion, with five girls from El Salvador, enrolled at Catholic Girls' High School.

We welcomed them to our 'midst and hope their stay with us during their English-learning days will be profitable and happy.

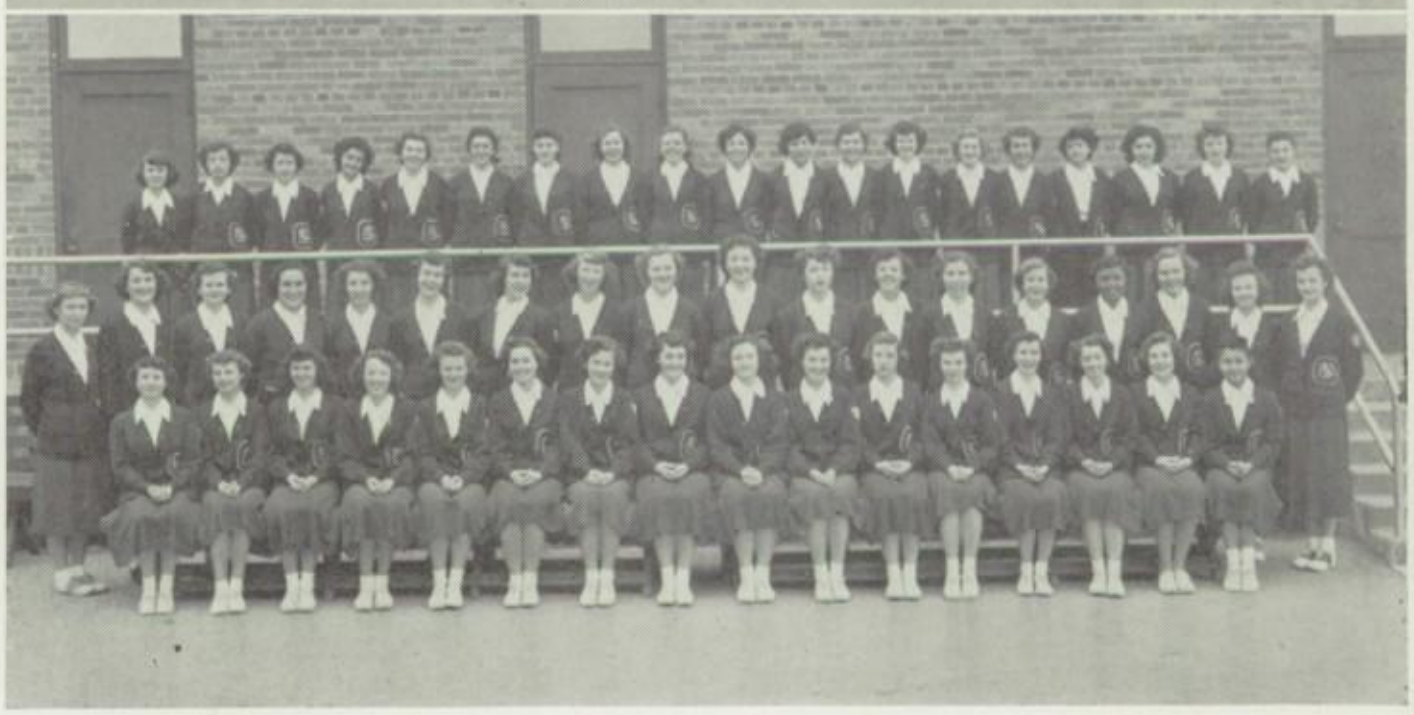
Cadet Leaders of Conaty



Service Committee

To aid the faculty in maintaining discipline and to train its members to be wise leaders is the aim of the Senior Control. Worthy of membership are those girls who have shown, by their outstanding spirit and cooperation, an active interest in the welfare of our school.

The Sophomore Service Committee is composed of those members who are preparing now to be capable Senior Controllers.

Legion of Mary

JOANNE MATZ
President

Members of the Legion serve Our Lady in a quiet way through many channels. Collecting and sorting stamps, distributing Catholic literature to the sick in the hospitals, making scrap books for little children, and giving out information about how to be a Christopher are among the many activities of the Legion. Every Monday some of the members visit the Helpers of the Holy Souls and help with the sewing which the Sisters have prepared for them. In many parishes some of the members may be found on Saturday afternoon helping in the sacristy or in the church. These hours of labor are offered to Our Lady in the hope that others may come to know and love her more.

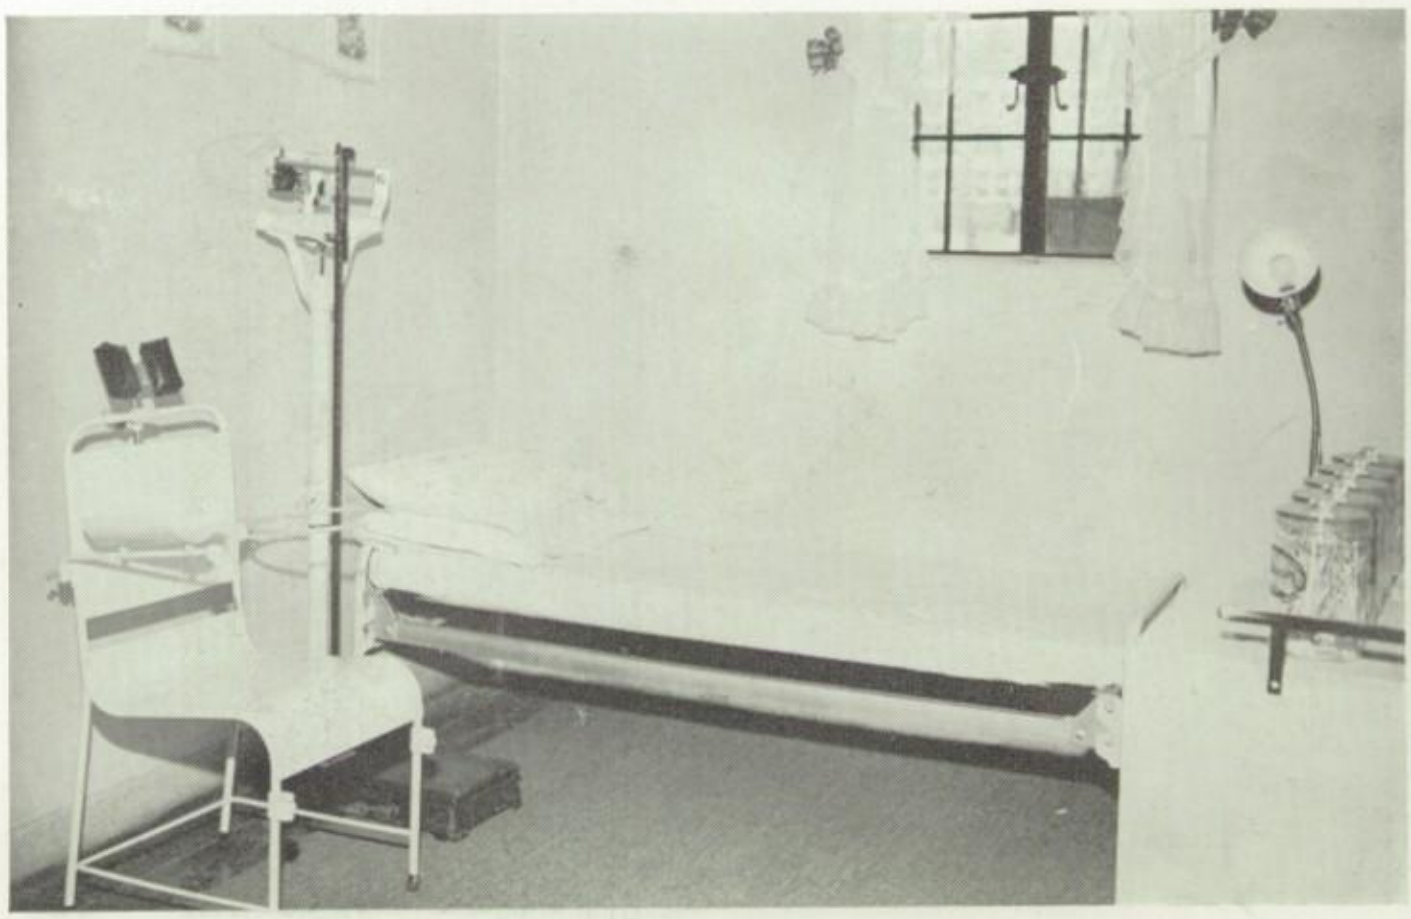
Our New Health Room



Before . . .

and

. . . After

February 1, 1950—the date the new and modernized Homemaking Department was christened our own "Matchless Home."

A traditional spot disappears . . .

Only a headstone marks

Rooms 107 and 108.

Our Guests

Reverend PATRICK J. ROCHE
Assistant Superintendent of Schools
Speaker, C.S.F. Installation

Reverend ANTHONY J. BROUWERS
Archdiocesan Director, Propagation of the Faith Society and
FATHER XAVIER
A Native Indian Missionary
Speakers at Sodality Meeting

Reverend HUGH NOONAN, O.F.M.
Director, Hour of St. Francis and Sodality speaker.

Reverend JAMES O'CALLAGHAN and Reverend JOHN BIRCH
Retreat Directors

Memories . . .

Eight chose WHITE for Spring sportswear.

Peggy Hart, junior, delights musical audience.

Lila Surmeier, senior, arranges a merchandising class project.

Spanish Club honored Our Lady on December 12.

Seniors took their Mothers to Tea.

Jayne Phipps wins Teen-Age Editor laurels and a trip to Chicago.

Our Friends

MISS LUPE ARRANGOIZ, Registrar

True blue . . . a gracious smile . . .
unfailing patience . . . an indispensable part of C.G.H.

MRS. JAMES COCHRANE, R.N.,
School Nurse.

Always lending a healthful hand;
she assisted Dr. Burns who vaccinated 350 girls. This year witnessed a complete T.B. Survey of the student body, faculty, and staff.

Susan Cserfay, junior, our little Austrian D.P., is receiving an American check-up.

Who Serve

A vote of thanks to those who make our school work and play so happy.

Mr. FRANK KLODT, F.M.E.
Cheerful friendliness and faithful service make us realize that there is only one "Frank."

CAFETERIA STAFF

MAINTENANCE STAFF
